TRAVISSO

Travisso is a place for learning to flourish, and that doesn't end when you leave the community. Travisso is located within the Leander Independent School District, which is known for its outstanding schools and has earned multiple recognized honors for its academic excellence. Currently, Travisso students attend CC Mason Elementary School, Running Brushy Middle School, and Leander High School. These schools are located nearby and buses are provided. If your family is looking for a private school option, Sterling Classical School is a great option. Additionally, the school district has purchased land on Travisso Parkway for a future elementary school as the community grows. Austin Community College is also nearby for those looking to further their education as adults.
